chance encounter

Comment: The idea that first comes to your mind, is to try and disprove the written word, but I say no, what you should try and do is to find out what inspired the other to put pen to paper.

My name is DESMOND BOSWELL, and I am going to tell you a story, that you will find very hard to believe,

Nevertheless, I will tell you the story any way, and hope that you will not judge me too harshly,

I am a man who like the wide open spaces, and every chance I get, I like to drive out to the country side and enjoy the fresh green fields,

I work in a city under a lot of stress, and I look for word to my days off, when I can get in my car and get away from it all,

I am a simple man with simple needs, and it does not take much to make me happy, that been said, you will now understand who I am, and the way my mind work.

It was mid June of 1997, and the weather was just starting to change for the better, it was a rough winter, and this sudden change in the weather, was a welcome change, which made me jump at the chance to refresh my self.

The night before my days off, I was all excited, just thinking about the next two days to come, and the freedom of getting away from it all.

I packed the car with most of the things I thought I would need just in case, I even put my golf clubs in the car, and I took a book with me, saying to my self, if it rains, I will just sit in the car and have a good read.

I drove to the gas station down the road, and filled up the car, I did not intend to go too far, but you never know,

I also picked up a few snacks, and mumbled to myself, I had food for the mind, and now its time to get some food for the body.

I did the usual check of the car, you know, the oil, the coolant, and the screen wash.

Then I got into my car and drove out the gas station, and filtered into the traffic, and joined the rat race for the time been any way,

I drove out the city, and drove for about sixty miles,

I was going along just fine, when I saw to my left, about six to eight miles ahead of me, a beautiful looking valley,

I thought boy that look like a good place to stop and enjoy this wonderful day, but I could not find an exit, in which to exit the freeway.

I drove for another three are so miles, but I was getting a little concern, that I was going to miss this beauty spot, so I turned off the freeway, and drove into the village, that looked like a forming community.

Sure enough, after about a mile into the little town, I saw a man cutting his lawn, so I stopped and walked over to the man, and introduced myself,

I told the gentleman that I was from out of town and I was looking for a state park in which to have a lazy day, the man smiled and said, he too could do with some of that, bill stop what he was doing, and opened his gate, then he took the short walk on to the main road,

Bill pointed to the north and said, if you drive for about three miles north, you will come to a large church on the left,

And across the road from the church, you will see an old mill,

You will have to slow down, because there is an old road that is a little overgrown now, but if you look hard, you will see it,

Turn right, and just pass the old mill, if you take it steady, you will be able to go down that road for about five miles,

Then you will come to a lake, stop at the lake, you can park your car by the lake, it will be safe there, the kids are all in school, and they will not be riding those bikes by the lake today.

I thank bill, and wished him a good day, and followed his directions to the letter,

Sure enough, there was the church, and across the road, was the old mill, I took the right turn, and took it easy until I came to the lake, I looked for a good spot to park the car, and found a nice spot close to a large rock.

I packed my back pack, locked the car, and walked up a little hill,

Comment: One should learn to swallow one's pride, because when you ask for help, the helper grows and the person getting the help, takes a short cut to knowledge.

When I got to the top of the hill, I saw the most beautiful valley I have seen in a long time, now I thought to my self, do I go down the valley, or do I stay on the hill, the hill wan, so I stayed on the hill, and made my self comfortable.
I took my book out the backpack, and used the backpack as a backrest, and settled down to read my book,
I got about a third of the way through the book, when I herd a strange sound,
I put the sound down to the wind, and kept on reading the book,

However, the sound was now bothering me somewhat, so I close the book, and looked up in the direction where the sound was coming from, and I saw what looked like a cloud with an attitude, I thought how could this be?

The sky was clear and blue, and not another cloud in the sky.
I watched the cloud for about a minute or so, then I went back to reading my book, but it's that sound again, I said to my self, here I am, miles away from everything, and I can't seams to get any peace.
I went back to the lone cloud, smiled and said, thank the lord I am not under that cloud,
I did not bring a coat with me, now the cloud seams to be moving towards me, I said a few choice words, and refused to move, it took me long enough to find this spot, so I am not going to move, no matter what.

I kept my eye on the strange cloud, and this cloud was moving in the apposite direction of the wind, now I know that I need a medical check up, because there is no way a cloud can move against the wind,

This turned out to be no ordinary cloud,

Inside the cloud were a space ship or something, and no one around to verify what I have just seen,

I looked up to the sky and asked, why these things always happens to me lord, how am I going to explain this one?

My feet got a little heavy, because I wanted to run down the hill back to the car, but I could not move, I tried to close my eyes, but I had no control over my body,

I was petrified of what could happen to me,

There I was, frozen to the spot, my brain was working overtime, but the rest of me was out of it.

I gained the strength to close my eyes, and started to say the lord's prayers, when a voice said, man of the EARTH, why does your hart work so fast?

You have nothing to be fearful of, I whispered to my self, you speak for your self, who ever you are, the voice said, I am from another world, and we too like the quit place of the land.

I wanted to say your full of it, but I did not want to get him or it mad, so I said nothing, the voice said, I understand your mind, and I will not stay in your present for long, again I called upon god, and said thank the lord for that.

Comment: Then tell me why a trout swims against the flow of the river, not all things are made clear to you, some things are on a right to know basis.

Then the voice said, who is god, and who are you speaking to if not me?
I thought to myself, this is one messed up day, the voice asked me, if I could point to the part of the day that is, as you say messed up, and before I could answer, the voice said, was it when I appeared before you?

Comment: A day to DESMOND is but a minute to SELLERTOR, now find the law that says it is not so.

I wanted to say no, I talked to clouds every day, and then I remembered that it could read my mind, so I said you could say that.

The voice from the cloud said, this is not a cloud; it is our way of protecting you, Because if we show our self, or the craft that we use, you would not be able to explain what you have seen.

I said thanks for nothing;

The voice said, it is our gift to you, who love the open space, I wandered, dare I ask him or it a question?

And the voice from the ship, what am I saying, I see no ship, the voice from the cloud said, speak what is in your mind, see I almost forgot about the mind thing, so I said ok, then why are you here?

The voice turned it back on me, and ask me why am I here, the tension was now leaving my body, and I was less afraid, I don't know why, but I was less fare full, so I said, to get away from it all, now this thing made a wise crack at my expense, and said, that is why I am here.

So now I was getting bold, so I said, but you have that thing, whatever it is, you can float amongst the stars, the voice said, it is a long time between land, that are green, and I too like to see new things.

I asked the question, who are you, and what do you want?

The voice did not respond right away, there was a long pause, then the voice said, I am called SELLERTOR, is the answer to your first question, and for the question that follows the first, we are explorers of the planets.

Now I will ask you a question, what is your name?

I said my name is DESMOND BOSWELL, the voice asked me another question; the voice asked me, why do I have two names?

I said, you would not understand if I told you, the voice said, if that is your wish, then it is also my wish, then he said, greetings DESMOND BOSWELL, I was a little surprise to here that, so I said, welcome SELLERTOR.

There was a long silence, the cloud did not move, and I did not move.

Comment: If someone wishes you well, then whatever makes you happy, also makes them happy.

Then a green light came out the cloud, and it seems as if the green light was all over my body,

I tried to move out the way of the green light, and a voice from the cloud said,

It is best if you stay still DESMOND BOSWELL;

I mumbled to myself, I herd that, and stayed right there,

After about a minute or so, the voice said, DESMOND BOSWELL you are in need of medical attention.

I said SELLERTOR you are out of your cloud, there is nothing the matter with me, I am fit, and always was a fit man,

SELLERTOR said, do not be alarmed, it is a simple thing, one of the tubes that takes the blood to your beating art, have many gates, and one of the gate does not open anymore.

I asked SELLERTOR how you did that.

SELLERTOR replied, that is why I told you not to move from the light, so I said, oho the green light.

SELLERTOR said, that is correct DESMOND BOSWELL.

Comment: Just because you do not have the knowledge, does not mean that the knowledge does not exist.

The light went off, and I could move again,

I looked up at the cloud, that was no more than one hundred yards above my head, and the cloud started to spin slowly,

I wanted to say or do something, but I could not think, then the voice said, I will return to check on you, and when that day comes, there is much I will show to you, but for now DESMOND BOSWELL, you can return to that part of the day, that you say, was messed up, I will take you back to that part of the day, before I appeared to you, what could I say, but thank you.

Comment: DESMOND did not have the knowledge to dispute the statement made by SELLERTOR, so saying thank you was the smart thing to do.

SELLERTOR said, I will now leave you to get away from it all,

And I too will get away from this place,

Farewell man with two names, farewell.

The cloud turned very dark, and I said jokingly, it looks like rain, and the voice said, not so DESMOND BOSWELL, no rain, and in a flash the cloud was gone, and the sky was blue all over again,

I was left sitting under a tree, wandering how in gods name I am going to explain this one,

But before I do anything, I must first go and get a physical, just in case SELLERTOR knows what he is talking about.

For me the day was over, I wanted to return to the city, and make an appointment to see my doctor, the quicker I get this finished, the better I will feel.

I drove back to the city, and made the appointment with my doctor, they put me in the book for the next Thursday at 9 am,

For the next two day, all I could think about, was that cloud, and the voice of SELLERTOR.

On the morning of the visit to the doctor, I made sure I did not eat anything,

I was a little tense to say the least.

I got to the doctor, and reported to the front desk, then I took a seat, and flicked through a book, in a short time, my name was called,

I thought to myself, SELLERTOR must have something to do with this,

I'm just playing, anyway, I went in to see doctor Phil more, and as usual, he does not waste any time, he had me under that M.R.I. so fast, you think he was been ordered to do so, but it was good for me, because I wanted this over and done with as soon as possible.

When the test was over, I was told to go and sit in the waiting room, the test result will be ready in a little while,

So I picked up a book, and sat myself down, after about an hour, I was called in to go and speak with the doctor, so I asked the receptionist, if there was a problem with my insurance?

She said no, it is just that the doctor would like to speak with you; I thanked her, and went in to see the doctor,

I knocked on the door, and a voice said, come in, I opened the door and walked into the Doctors office, he was on the phone, so he made a sign with his hands, telling me to sit on the bed.

When he was finished on the phone, he turned to me and said, DESMOND, I have good news, and I have bad news, so I said o.k. shoot, the doctor said, you do not seem to be too disturb by this at all, I said doctor I know that I have a clogged artery, now give me the good news, the doctor said, well if you put it like that, you only have one blockage, and I would like to do the operation in two days, so I said o.k. that will not be a problem.

The doctor turned to me and asked me, how in gods name did you know that you had a blocked artery?

I said doctor, it is a long story, and some day, I will tell you all about it.
