

THE VISITOR

My name is RANDOLPH DORGAN,

And I am what am commonly known as a lover of fishing, Therefore, when I am not working around the house, you will always find me in the local state park, by the river fishing, and loving every minute of it.

My mother always said, boy one of theses day you are going to catch more than a fish, if you keep going down to the river in all hours of the day and night,

My mother is not with us anymore, god rests her soul, I really miss that woman, but anyway she is in a much better place now I hope.

Anyway, back to my fishing, and me

One day I got out of bed very early in the morning, packed up all my fishing equipment, and took myself down to the river.

I found myself a wonderful spot just about one hundred yards down from the water fall, I took some medium stones and made myself a little campsite like spot, and I must admit, even if I say so myself it looked really good.

I laid out all my stuff and set up my rods, and then I throw the thing in the river and sat back waiting for my first bight.

I sat around for a couple of hours, and I notice that the sun was just coming up over the mountain top, it looked so good , I wished I had brought my camera, it would make a nice postcard.

I must remember to take it with me next time I go fishing.

I was sitting down in that one spot so long that I dozed off for a while, and I felt as if I was dreaming, it is hard to explain but I felt as if there was someone else there with me, but I could not see anyone, so I just brushed it off as stress, and closed my eyes again.

Then I herd a strange sound, so I opened my eyes and looked up but I saw nothing, but the sound was still there,

I did a tiger woods and checked the top of the trees to see if it was the wind, but the trees were still, and the morning clouds was drifting south very slowly, so it was not the wind.

I have been coming to this spot for a number of years and this is the first time I have ever herd anything like this, I know the area very well, so I have no idea what the sound could be.

I was just about to pull my line out of the water when I herd a voice said.

I am RANDOO SECARR.

Just then I remembered my mothers words, she would say, boy did I not tell you not to eat so late and go to bed, you will get nightmares.

I turned my head to the right and saw this strange looking man dressed like someone going to a fancy dress party, I was so sop rise that I could not say one word, then I mustered up some sort of mumbled hi there, then the man said.

I am a visitor to your world, and I wish to understand your way, I am from another dement ion and another world, I come in peace and to gather information so on my return I may relay this information to the council of my people.

Therefore, I naturally said welcome, and then the man said.

I will have no aggression to you and your people, and I hope you have no bad feelings against me as a visitor to your world,

When I left the mother ship I encountered a vast electrical storm, and my protective shield was not deployed,

The intention to visit your world was not planned, because a fault in the onboard computer brought this about, but now that I am with you,

I wish to learn much of your ways and where you will go when the life is gone from this place.

I thought to myself, it is a little early to be talking about stuff like that, but I said nothing.

The man said.

I ask the question because the life of a planet is but a short time, because when the heat from within is gone cold, your people must find a young planet with much heat from within in which to start over again,

In addition, the knowledge gained from your time on this planet, will help you to continue as before, so it was for my people and me, and so it will be for you and your clan.

So I said.

My name is RANDOLPH DORGAN, but I do not speak for my people, I came to this place because I like to fish, when you appeared before me I had no words to explain my sop rise,

Now that I know you have no bad intentions towards me, I will speak to you as a man, but not as a reprehensive of my people, the questions I will ask of you will only be for my enlightenment. I sounded good didn't I?

I SECARR will answer the words I understand, and I will tell you man of planet EARTH the things you ask of me, is this pleasing to you DORGAN, yes said DORGAN, then said SECARR we will speak of many things.

SECARR asked DORGAN, why do you fish,

DORGAN replied,

It is a sport for me and many like me,

SECARR replied,

But I think it is not a sport for the fish would you not say DORGAN, DORGAN replied, I am a man and all that is on the planet is for me to use as I see fit.

SECARR, I am on your planet, so then you would treat me as you do the fish, DORGAN no,

You are a man and you have the same right as I DORGAN do.

SECARR,

The answers you have just given to me have much benefit for you,

DORGAN asked SECARR why he says that,

SECARR replied,

If having to power to catch the fish mean that you will always catch the fish, then I have the power to destroy you, does that mean that I should destroy you DORGAN.

DORGAN thought for a moment,

Then DORGAN said,
No you should not destroy me,
SECARR asked DORGAN why I should not destroy you,
DORGAN replied,
I have not done you wrong,

SECARR then said,
Now tell me what wrong have the fish have done to you,
DORGAN replied,
I catch the fish to eat the fish; this action is to sustain my life,
SECARR then asked DORGAN,
Can you be sure that I do not see you as food for me?

DORGAN said, I do not think so, Anyway, I hope not, SECARR then said, what would happen if your wish does not come true?

DORGAN said, then I would be up the creek without a paddle.
SECARR said, you speak in a strange way, but I understand your meaning, then SECARR laugh.

DORGAN said,
I now feel safe because your laughter so jest I have no need to fare for my safety,

SECARR said,
Of that, you are correct, so now we will speak of other things.

SECARR ASK DORGAN,
And how long have you been trying to catch this fish you speak of,
DORGAN said,

I have been in this river sine early done, and I do not have one bite, SECARR
then asked DORGAN,

If I improve your situation would that be pleasing to you,
DORGAN told SECARR,

If you could help me get a good catch that would make my day,

SECARR then said, this small thing I will do for you, SECARR took from his hip holster a small gun like device and pointed it in the water, and within a short time many fish came floating to the top of the river, DORGAN told the stranger, it is not that I am ungrateful, but the tug on the line is half the fun.

SECARR then said, there is much I need to understand from you man of planet EARTH,

I have helped you to do the thing you wish to do but you are not joyful, this I will change, and as fast as SECARR said the words, all the fish floated to the bottom of the river, then SECARR told DORGAN to place the string like device you have back into the water, DORGAN throw the line back into the water, and in a short time DORGAN was fighting with the largest fish in the river, he could hardly hold his ground, and the line nearly broke, DORGAN turned to SECARR and ask him, how you did that.
SECARR said, that is a simple thing,
I have the ability to do many more things, would you like to see,
DORGAN said, yes and no.
SECARR. Said, you man of planet EARTH speak as if you are undecided, which is it you want,
The yes of your words,
Alternatively, the no of your words.
DORGAN said, oho, I am sorry, when we speak like that; it is because we are not sure.
SECARR then said, if a thing that I do brings no harm to you, then you would be pleased.
DORGAN said, yes I would be pleased.
Then DORGAN turned to SECARR and ask him, you are not going to make me disappear are you,
SECARR said no,
However, I could,
DORGAN whispered to himself, what have I ran into now, the visitor said, EARTHman, even when you speak in silence I can still understand your thoughts.
However, your thoughts were of no consequence so I will keep you in the present.
DORGAN said, thank god for that,
The visitor ask DORGAN who is god,
DORGAN said, how did I knew that you were going to ask me that,
SECARR said, may be you too can understand the unspoken word, DORGAN replied, no such luck.
SECARR said, you did not reply to the question about the GOD MAN you speak of DORGAN said, it is our religion, SECARR said, you mean the hidden power that controls your action, DORGAN said, you could say that, SECARR said, I have just said that,

SECAAR said, you seams uncomfortable when you speak of your GOD MAN,
DORGAN said, it is very hard to explained, and I do not wish to speak of it anymore, SECARR said, I will respect your wishes,
And no more was said.

DORGAN was the first to speak again,
DORGAN asked SECARR,
Where he was from,
SECARR said,
If I told you, you would not understand,
DORGAN said, tell me anyway.
SECARR said,

I am from a world where all thoughts are possible, all things that you wish you will see, but it is very important for you to learn to forget, because if you cannot forget, then there will be no place for you to stay, because your surroundings will be filled with your thoughts, could you live like that DORGAN.

DORGAN thought about it for a moment, and then he said, it would be nice to try.

SECAAR said; let us try a try you speak of, DORGAN looked up to the clouds and thought I wish the clouds would go away,

And before the thought could leave his mind, the sun came out, DORGAN looked at SECARR and said, did you see that.
SECARR said, EARTH MAN you wished it and it was so,
DORGAN said what the hell.
SECARR asked DORGAN if he would like to try this try again.
DORGAN said, I do not know what to say.

SECARR said to DORGAN, in your clothing you have items you could make marking on, DORGAN said, oho you mean paper,

SECARR said yes, paper,
Remove it please,
DORGAN said; let me see you make some one--hundred-dallier bills,

SECARR said, the items you use to exchange goods will not be good for this I am about to show you,
DORGAN said, dam it.

SECARR told DORGAN to put the paper on a stone, DORGAN put the paper on a stone, SECARR said

Look at any thing or any place and wish for the paper to be at that place or on another stone,

DORGAN thought he would play a game with the visitor, so DORGAN thought of many stones and many places, and to his surprise, the paper left the stone as if it were been control, and it went to every place and on every stone that came to his thoughts, DORGAN just sat there in amazement without saying a word.

The visitor said, you seems to have lost the ability to speak EARTH MAN, could it be that your eyes is playing a game with your brain, or it could be that my thoughts have made you see that which is not so, which is it.

DORGAN said, if you can do all that then why we have never seen you or your people before.

SECARR said,

We can be seen when we want to be seen, and when we do not, we will not be seen.

Then SECARR SAID, EARTHMAN,

I have put right that which was incorrect with my onboard code reader, and it is now time for me to return to the major craft, if this is the location for your fishing, then on my next visit, I will return to this place, and if you are at this place both you and I will exchange words, so until that time DORGAN, be good at your fishing.

DORGAN said, thank you for the fish, and I hope I see you again.

SECARR said, of that, you are correct, you will see me again as you say, then he just disappeared.

DORGAN said, may god help me, how am I going to tell this one, then DORGAN packed up all his equipment, got into his pickup truck and drove back home,

When DORGAN got on Main Street, he stopped at the light just in front of the post office, and who was across the street going the other way but DAVID his long time friend, DORGAN flashed his headlights at DAVE, and DAVE shouted over.

Did you get anything today?

Yes-shouted DORGAN.

DAVE shouted back, like hell you did,

DORGAN replied,

And not only that, I had a visitor.

DAVE replied, yes, you did,

From the bogymen, just then, the light turned green, and both men had to drive off,

As DORGAN crossed over the section, he said to himself, if he only know, god if he only know.

DORGAN pulled into the driveway to his house,

He stepped out the truck and walked to the back, to have another look at his fine catch,

He pulled the canvas back and took a good look at the fish,

Then he said, you are a big one aren't you, just then he thought of SECARR.

Then DORGAN asked himself the question, I wonder why SECARR called GOD the GOD MAN,

I will have to talk to him again, and ask him about that,

However, god knows when that will be.
